Your cruise begins 1:00pm from your hotel where we will collect you and transfer you to Mekong Dawn boat. Greeting you by our Cruise Manager and the crew members with a welcome drink and checked into your cabins lunch will be service while the boat will start a gentle cruise towards Silk Island (Koh Dach). Silk Island is a typical rural Cambodian weaving village, where the population operates hand looms under most of the houses, others dyeing and spinning silk on spinning wheels made of bicycle parts. Weaver experts will explain the weaving process in detail from silkworms to scarfs. After the excursion on Silk Island, we will return to the boat relaxing sundowner as the boat navigate toward Khsach Kandal a peaceful area and anchor for the night.

Day 2 / Khsach Kandal - Oudong – Kampong Tralach - (Meals - /B/ L/ D)

The boat will begin its gentle ride toward Oudong as the sun rises, but you can take your time to rise for breakfast as you feel comfortable and enjoy your day as the boat sail for a gentle cruise down the river to the ancient Cambodian capital of Oudong. We dock at Koh Chen ‘Chinese Island’, a small village whose inhabitants specialize in silver and copper smiting. After lunch you will be transferred to the nearby Oudong Mountain, where a brisk climb takes you to one of the finest views in the Kingdom. From 1618 to 1866 this served as Cambodia’s capital city and an array of interesting stupas, tombs and memorials remain. Return to the boat and enjoy sundowner as the boat move forward to Kampong Tralach a local rural area with a natural beauty. Enjoy dinner here amongst the scenic spot of Tonle Sap River.

Day 3 / Kampong Tralach – Kg Chhnang (Meals B/ L/ D)

After a hearty breakfast, we will experience an Ox Cart ride - a traditional mode of transport that is still commonly used in rural areas today to visit Kampong Tralach Temple which was built in 1841. After the visit to the temple, we return to Mekong Dawn and continue the journey toward Kampong Chhnang This town is famous for fish farming and pottery ware. Upon arrival guests will transfer to land via a smaller boat to visit the pottery village, tuk tuks will be used to get around the villages – the perfect way to watch the stunning scenery of this province. Think emerald green paddies dotted with sugar palms, water buffaloes lazily grazing in shimmering, lotus-lined ponds, and smiling children screaming ‘hello’ from the stilted wooden houses they call home. After the tour, return to Mekong Dawn for a leisurely evening on board with dinner and drinks served amongst the scenic spot along the river.

Day 4 / Kompong Chhnang – Siem Reap (Meals B/ -/ -)

Wake up for a hearty breakfast before disembarking the Mekong Dawn Boat and continue the journey by air-conditioned coach toward Siem Reap and offer a glimpse into the laid-back rural life. On the way we will make a stop in Kampong Thom province for viewing an ancient bridge or make stop for coffee as you wish. Lunch at a local restaurant (on guest own spend) before visiting Kampong Phluk floating village a popular tourist attraction located on the Tanas River which flows into Tonle Sap Lake. The Village has over 1,000 permanent residents living in Stilt wooden houses. The Villages also feature a school, a Temple, a church, and a number of restaurants primarily catering to tourists. After visiting you will be transfer to Siem Reap to your hotel around 4:00pm where your trip ends!
